Dear Max:

As a former member of the Board of the New Hampshire Business and Industry Association, I wanted you to know that the Officers and Directors join with me in extending our sincerest congratulations and good wishes on your recent appointment to the CIA.

Your new responsibilities certainly reflect the confidence which President Reagan has in your ability and all of us are indeed pleased to see this opportunity for you to exercise leadership in such a sensitive post.

We are taking delegations of Directors and BIA members to Washington rather frequently these days and our next visit we'll let you know of our coming. I would hope that you might be able to join us for dinner and perhaps share with us those things which you think we should be aware of.

My best wishes for every success.

Sincerely yours,

JAMES G. ROBERTS
Executive Vice President
